QUIPS AND CRANKS

THE ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF DAVIDSON

COLLEGE, DAVIDSON, NORTH CAROLINA

HAL TODD, EDITOR -:- JIM NORMAN, BUSINESS MANAGER

FOREWORD

The entity Davidson College can be resolved into its elements, heritage, students and program. We comprehend these elements, they are facts to us, but what makes them form this integrated whole, how and why are they related, and is there nothing more, what of the before, and of the after? We, students, faculty and others who know Davidson College ask these questions. Why this entity from these component parts? Has it served and will it continue to serve a useful purpose?

70.693

These are not new questions, this analysis of Davidson is not new. Every day each of us separates these elements in bull sessions, fraternal and organizational meetings, discussions at home with parents or students at other colleges. But, by means of pen and camera, the editors wish to analyze Davidson College once again, not to picture each of these elements as is done so frequently, but to question their relationship to the entity and to discover whether, with or in spite of these elements, Davidson has served and will continue to serve a purpose.

HERITAGE. . .

What is Davidson's heritage and how may we discover it?
Is it only a part of Davidson's transition from past to present?
Or is it a living spirit, an integral part of the college?
One stands alone, looking at the church,
Our constant reminder of Christian influence.
His glance wanders from the white columns of a literary hall
To the new brick of the science building.
Our constant reminder of a Davidson past and present.
He passes professors who are talking

About curriculum changes, honors programs, humanities courses.
Our constant reminder of a present living heritage.
He smiles as a student stops him
To ask to show him around.
Our constant reminder of a gracious past too soon forgotten.
This then is our heritage,
These buildings and these men.
Each in its own way, whether past or present,
Comprises a part of that which has been
And is called Davidson.
We may look about and see our heritage.
And yet, if asked, we cannot define it
As easily as our casual glance recognizes it each day.

STUDENTS

They return in early September,
Backslapping, swapping summer tales,
Anticipating rush week,
Rearranging conflicting schedules.
They eye the freshmen with contempt,
Wondering if they were that confused.

Yellow leaves have blown away with
The cheers from football's crisp days.
As winter commands pre-vacation tests
And watches those who cram all night.
The student, harassed by
Tests and papers
Wastes no time on Christmas spirit.

Exams and a fresh start
As second semester brings its rains.
Basketball season fades into Baseball.
But one day, the student realizes
It's warm again.

As May passes swiftly,
Exam pressure begins to build.
The student recalls
The past year's events.
And anxiously awaits summer vacation.
Next year is a passing thought.
Last year is a hazy remembrance.

PROGRAM

We wish to know
If a liberal education
Is acquired solely from
Lectures and reading assignments,
Or is there something more?

As we watch the tapping of Omicron Delta Kappa,
As we pass in review at federal inspection,
As we hear the gun crack and the spikes dig into the cinders,
We realize that
Certain subjects cannot be taught
In a classroom.

HERITAGE

HERITAGE

Of the heritage that is a part of Davidson College, a most important segment is the faculty and administration. By means of their knowledge and ability, they must attempt to lead the student to the ideal of the liberally educated man. To stimulate a student's mind so that he will think and question, challenge and seek is their purpose. But, at the same time, they must continually guide the efforts of the college, search its traditions and institutions, re-evaluate and redirect Davidson's goals so that their purpose will be realized. In them is Davidson's living heritage, and only by their efforts will this be kept alive.

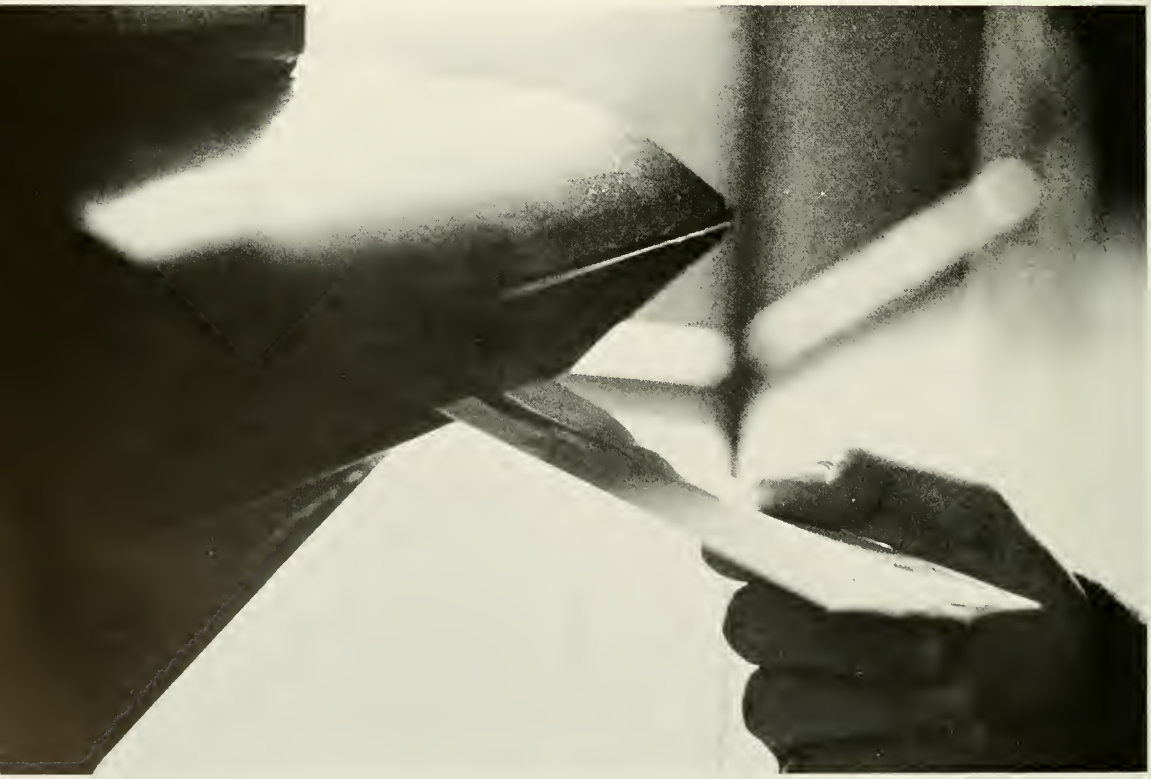
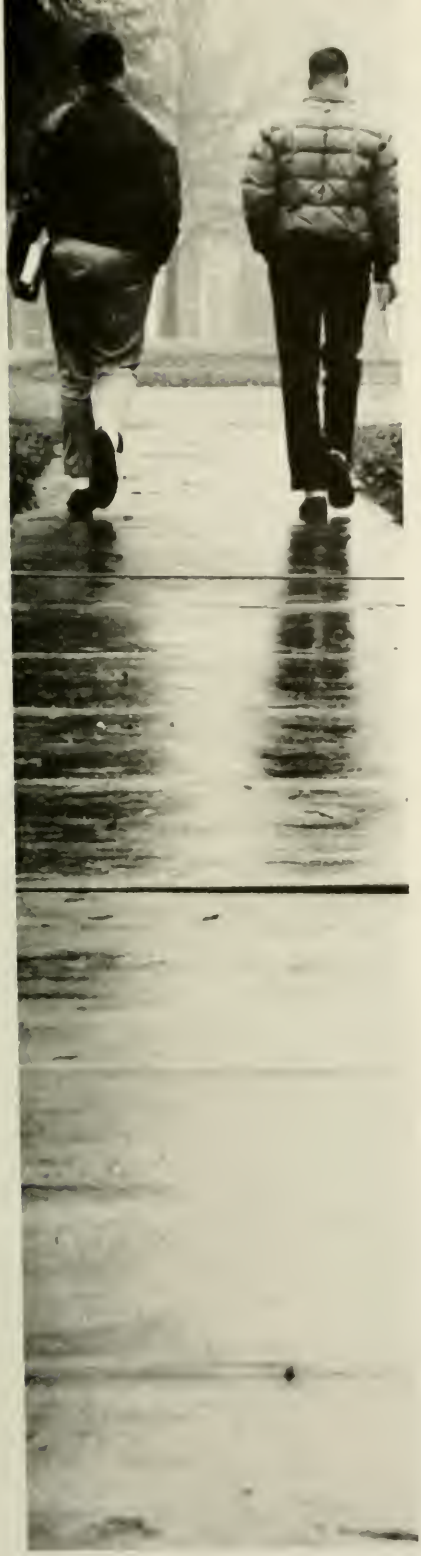
Of the elements which comprise the entity Davidson College, the students are most important. They arrive from many different places bringing with them many different ideas, educations and customs. But from the moment they arrive, they may forever use Davidson as a part of their title.

As a member of the Davidson student body, they learn, play, and question the game of college, abiding by the rules that one must study for grades, one must hold as many offices as possible, one must shun religion, one must never allow emotion to prevail, and one may question and mock everything.





When the student is apart from the crowd, he allows himself to think, talk or joke about Davidson. It is then that he questions his purpose in life, wonders what his career should be, and estimates what he has learned and accomplished. In that moment, alone, he leaves the game, looks at it and himself, and is shamefully conscious that he has grossly underestimated the goals he must attain in order to be a well educated man. In these moments, alone, the student has realized his failure and has made himself more aware of the ideals he must fulfill. He will once again attempt, no matter how fruitlessly, to succeed.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen arrive new, hurried, seeking immediate acceptance but gaining it solely from their peers who display the same red stigma. Their continuous questions in the first person concern courses, professors, fraternities, and on and on all year. They watch and overhear the game being played throughout the year, but they have brought too much of home, high school, religious faith, and love of life to be accepted as players.

They comprehend the rules by means of their questions, but, the upperclassmen warn them, they must practice and conform to become proficient. It takes time, for most, a year, for they often forget the rules of the game and become homesick, or excited by childish water fights and cap burnings. Few lose their naivete early, and it requires time for experimentation, invention and self-appraisal before they are able to master the subleties and complexities of the game.

SOPHOMORES

Casual in stance and attitude, ready to take offense, the flippant sophomore screams the perfection of his game when he has only just learned how to play. Dressed in any of the latest campus styles, he is capable of speaking on any subject, though he may know nothing about it, of deriding what he knows nothing about and following the sophomoric rule:

It is better to speak out of turn
Than not at all.

Will Jackson, President, and John Barrow, Student Council Representative.

But among other upperclassmen, he strives hard to play as well as they. He, too, is afraid to discover if he is the self-assured, knowledgeable man he thinks he is.

JUNIORS

Tommy Stafford and Hill Wellford, Student Council Representatives, and Jerry Trammell, President.

For the junior, his is a year of labs, more detailed and longer assignments, advanced ROTC, and the hardest courses in his major field of study. September prophesies the wasteland of tedious study. Through the year his library carrell guards overdue books and old test papers.

Other oil burners keep the vigil in his dorm room, having gained admission with the query, "Got any spots for the test?" The junior's scholastic goals are grades, completion of required courses and an easy senior schedule. In the spring he becomes a candidate, for, having perfected the game and having been accepted as a regular player, he must prove by his election not only mastery of the rules, but also a finesse which the average participant lacks.

Shunning the companionship of younger members of the student body, he studies the seniors, learning their problems and plans, seeking their advice. He knows how soon he too must face the ending and the beginning.

In May the junior closes his book, stopping for a moment to feel the expectation and the urgency of the future and to question what if . . . , when I become . . . , what happens when . . .

He must have the answers now, before everyone goes and it is too late, before he must face next fall unprepared.

He is afraid that, having spent a year memorizing specific books, notes and labs, he has not taken enough time to learn the uncatalogued courses of college. And he turns to watch the game for a moment, wondering if he should have played at all.

Each year, a number of foreign students are sent to Davidson as a part of the English Speaking Union, as Richardson scholars, and as scholars connected with other programs. They are welcomed warmly at first, attend certain classes, socialize at different fraternity houses, and, in general, watch the game of college as it progresses through the year. It is hoped that the foreign students will gain friends and begin to comprehend a concept too few Americans understand, the American way of life.

Although we, the students live in a world of international relationships, we fail to recognize that we may learn from the foreign student his culture and ideas while teaching him ours. But when we have spoken to these men more than once, we leave them alone. They huddle together for companionship, for we will not take time out from our game to understand their ideas.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

SENIORS

Though the senior finds his class schedule emptied of courses required for graduation, his hours are filled with graduate school interviews and scholarship applications, job interviews, forms for assignment and entrance in the Army, and meetings and schedules of extracurricular activities. He discovers quickly that he must fit his studying and social life in between the thousands of details which help him plan and decide what he will be doing next year, and when he will be doing it.

A senior's puzzle, the future, includes the pieces, past and present. And so he must fit the pieces of the puzzle, he must see a picture of his future clearly. He takes the past and finds in it his major and grades, his extracurricular activities and awards. In fraternity bull sessions, in conferences with professors, in interviews, and in letters and phone calls he is advised and finds the present. And then alone, he fits these pieces of what he can and what he ought with his own opinionated piece—what he wants to do. He completes the puzzle. But the senior will tear apart and fit together the pieces many times before he sees any clear picture.

After graduation, the senior finds time to evaluate his college achievements and to look at his future. He realizes that he has had little time during the past year to play the game of college and wonders whether the game taught him anything about himself or was even adequate preparation for this ending and beginning. It does not seem as important as he first thought, and, perhaps, if he had not played, it would not have made any difference. But, he rationalizes, can a student accomplish anything without the game?

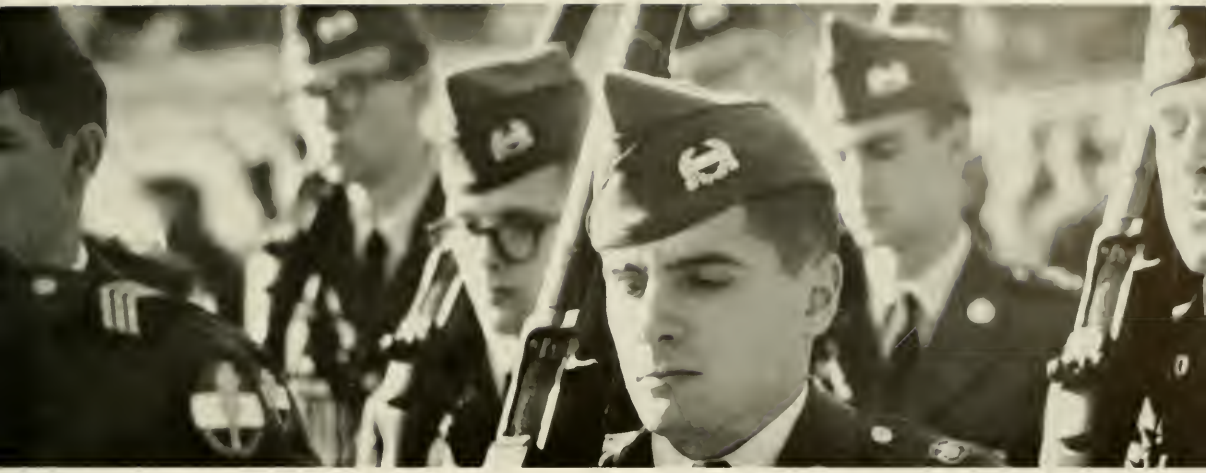
We may stop at a door and hear a play rehearsal, listen for a moment to a panel discussion, watch the players dart, crouch, or cut as one jumps, shoots, and swishes the nets. We are outside, but interested. Should we go in and find out?

Bored by the monotony of classes, labs, studying, we seek outlets from the routine of college life, an escape from the constant game we play. Some of us wonder if we can learn from other sources than books and lectures. Many of us will not spare the time to find out.



Those of us who participate in one or more of these groups, athletics, fraternities or activities, soon realize that we have found a means of contributing part of ourselves both physically and mentally. These pursuits not only interest us, but teach us by applying our old skills and by learning new ones. And we may discover that as a part of these groups, we may render service to Davidson.

ACTIVITIES

Danny Carrell
President

STUDENT COUNCIL

Just as the Honor Court is the judicial branch of Davidson's student government, the Student Council concerns itself with the legislative problems of the student body. Acting upon proposals from last year's council, the election procedures were investigated and implemented by this year's council, and the cut system was revised concerning the number of absences allowed each student. Besides these actions taken by the Council, the problems of the drinking question and student parking were discussed and acted upon with profitable results.

Fred McGuirt, Second Vice-President, and John Spratt, First Vice-President

HONOR COURT

The Court asks when, where and how, and afterwards the students, rumor filled, ask who and why. The facts have been interpreted, evaluated, understood; a decision rendered; and a member of the Court, satisfied that the rule or law has been upheld, may wonder, was the law just, can rules or law define honor? He prays to Her who holds the scales that She will move him and his peers to protect this cherished tradition, for, without honor, a student can never claim his sacred title—gentleman.

"The quality of mercy is not strained . . .
It blesseth him that gives and him that takes . . ."

FRESHMAN COURT

Members of the Freshman Court are: John Dixon, Will Jackson, Phil Squier, Soud Stewart, John Killian, Howard Arbuckle, Larry Leafer, and Dave Lopp.

Spud Stewart
Freshman Advisor

Evolving from the Court of Control, the Freshman Court attempts to reform the behavior of any freshman who has violated Davidson traditions or the Freshman Regulations. Many times the Court has helped freshmen adjust to their new environment, but often it has induced the freshmen to practice the unwritten rules of the game of college.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

The Publications Board is made up of the editors of the three campus publications, their business managers, the College Treasurer, and a member of the faculty selected by the administration. It meets once each month to evaluate the financial reports of the publications. In the spring, the Board supervises the nominations of editorial candidates for the next year upon the recommendations of the graduating editors. The Board must also approve the business managers for the coming year at this time.

Members of the Publications Board are: seated, Dean Burts, Ed Willer, Frank Stafford, Mr. Currie, and Bill Hagen. Standing, Hal Todd and Jim Norman.

The Davidsonian is the editorial voice of Davidson College. As the school newspaper, it gathers news information, raises issues pertaining to college life and often serves as a voice of the students speaking to the trustees, faculty and administration. It allows these segments of the college community to answer the students. Whether the student opinion agrees with the editorial policy is unimportant in comparison to the fact that the Davidsonian raises issues and induces discussion.

COLLEGE

With office and conference space for the activities and publications of the college, as well as dining facilities, a book store and student store, the College Union is a place where faculty, students, and administration can work or relax, alone or together.

At any church-related school, such as Davidson, the YMCA's purpose is to serve the student body and the community. Although Davidson students seldom recognize the YMCA's program and achievements, the "Y" cabinet plans and conducts community work projects, the Book-of-the-Year program, voluntary chapels and special vespers, and the Christmas gift fund. Student and community apathy has often limited the work of the YMCA at Davidson this year, and students, as well as those who might work for the "Y," wonder if there is a need for their work or if a need is being created so that the YMCA may have a purpose for existence at Davidson, a church-related college.

A student sacrifices his time for community service project work.

LECTURE SERIES

Like other colleges which attempt to liberally educate the whole man, Davidson invites lecturers to the campus as a part of the college's Lecture Series. The varied program this year was of interest to both liberal arts and science majors, for Doctors Ferre, Glueck, and Highet spoke on theology, archaeology and the classics, respectively; and Doctors Gamow and Stanley lectured on physics and cancer, respectively.

MALE CHORUS

The Male Chorus, a select group chosen by competitive tryouts, increased its fame this year by giving concerts in Charlotte, singing in the opera, The Student Prince, and at the Christmas Vespers Service, and by touring this spring in Louisville, Detroit and St. Louis. Wherever and whenever the Male Chorus sings, it not only adds to its reputation, but to the reputation of Davidson College.

CHAPEL CHOIR

For men who are not members of the Male Chorus but are interested in joining a vocal organization, the Chapel Choir offers an opportunity. The Choir practices music to be sung in Vespers services, alternating Sundays with the Male Chorus. Both of these groups participate jointly at special Christmas and Easter musical services.

BUSINESS-ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION

VAGABONDS

Scheduling a large number of productions and workshops in September, the Vagabonds, with limited student and faculty support, successfully completed the major productions, Galileo, Agamemnon, Winterset and The Adding Machine and several fraternity and student one-act plays for workshop production. Reorganizing the staff early in the spring, the Vagabonds planned and completed a series of one-act plays by students, and a major production in May.

Established at Davidson in 1921, ROTC is a required course for freshmen and sophomores, and an elective for juniors and seniors who wish to try for a reserve or regular Army commission. Making the choice in his sophomore year, the student realizes that if he continues the program, he must undergo summer camp at the end of his junior year, and branch selection and assignment his senior year. In the advanced course, the student learns and applies the principles of leadership, tactics, logistics and staff organization. And when, as a senior, the student is commissioned, he hopes that, by his choice, ROTC has prepared him, but for peace.

ATHLETICS 1962-63

Perhaps we may only watch as our center moves and rolls his sweeping hook shot over outstretched hands into the basket, or listen as the quarterback calls did-da-dit, or cheer as the slow curve sweeps in and under the bat. But we will relive the Duke and Wake Forest games, complain of depth and scholarships, and look forward confidently in one direction, apprehensively in others, to next year.

FOOTBALL

In order to compete and win, a team must have equipment, players and coaches, but many factors will affect these necessities, and this will in turn affect the team's ability to win. Looking at the football season record, we would ask if piecemeal recruiting because of lack of scholarships, an ineffective recruiting system, the admissions policy, and student apathy are the factors which have affected our team's ability to win.

Football co-captains are Mike Owen and Bob Cordle.

Assistant coaches are: Shue, Stevens, Thrift and Salzer.

Bill Dole
Head Coach

Steve Heckard chalks up six on an 80 yard touchdown pass from Earl Cole.

DAVIDSON 21 Sophomore Heckard snares four passes from Cole, two of them for touchdowns. Lopp gets the other seven points as the Cats score in the first, third and fourth quarters for this expected victory in Charlotte. CATAWBA 6

DAVIDSON 0 Citadel's defense stops Cats four times within their twenty, but Cadets' Street catches a TD pass and kicks two field goals. Cole hits only five out of fourteen passes and Cats are held to 168 yds. to Cadets 360. CITADEL 19

Quarterback Earl Cole gives the signals.

DAVIDSON 15 Cats passing attack moves the ball at Wofford, but running game scores 12 points, and Dole kicks other three. Terriers held to 83 yards rushing by defensive unit, especially, Ross, Fuller, Slaughter, and Davidson. WOFFORD 0

DAVIDSON 13 A Blue Hose Homecoming is ruined as Cordle, with 34 yard punt return, sets up Cole to Heckard pass play for 33 yards and a touchdown. Pat Fisher scores in the last quarter. Cats' defensive unit staves off last minute air attack by Grantham. PRESBYTERIAN 9

Halfback Dave Lopp turns down field against V.M.I.

Ross moves in to make the stop against William and Mary.

DAVIDSON 7 First period of Homecoming WILLIAM & MARY 7 game is highlighted by an 89 yard Cole to Heckard touchdown pass. The Indians tie the score. The game becomes a defensive struggle in second half and Cats turn back Indian drive at six yard line to end the game.

DAVIDSON 7 Tucker, sneaking in from one yard line, V.M.I. 20 draws first blood for Davidson. But fullback Davis of Keydets proves to be too much for Cat defensive unit and rams through three V.M.I. touchdowns.

DAVIDSON 7 Cavalier quarterback Cuozzo sets up U. VA. 34 four touchdowns, and the Cats help with fumbles which result in two of these touchdowns. Fuller ties the score in second period 7-7, but Cavaliers go on to control the rest of the game.

Halfback Alex Gibbs cuts in against Richmond.

Halfback Gibbs eludes a would-be U. Va. tackler.

DAVIDSON 7 Sweeping end runs and up the middle FURMAN 14 thrusts were too much for Cats' defense. Lopp ties the score 7-7 with a fake field goal and pass, but with two minutes, the Paladins score on a 59 yard thrust.

Alex Gibbs turns the corner in the William and Mary game.

Barry Billington takes the handoff from Earl Cole before hitting at the V. M. I. line.

Dave Lopp turns down field behind Joe Jones' block.

DAVIDSON 20 Cats lead in the second half RICHMOND 28 7-6 on a Cole to Heckard pass and add 13 points with Cordle's 52 yard run and a Cole to Davidson pass. But the Spiders, fearing an upset, tie the score 20-20 in the third quarter and score again in the final seconds.

Halfback Bob Cordle moves out against U. Va.

Cordle carries the load into Furman territory.

The soccer team, coached by Harry Fogleman, had a successful season with a record of 6-2, scoring twenty-three goals for the season compared to the opponents' eighteen. Fred Schoen led team scoring, tieing the school record of nine goals. Brakel, Bryant, Schoen and captain Sasser played in every quarter, and, with these men except Sasser returning next year, Coach Fogleman looks forward to another strong squad.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Whittle's cross country team completed the season with a 3-3-1 record, beating Furman, Wake Forest and V.M.I. Captain Sterling Martin was outstanding as he finished first in five of the seven meets and was named to the all conference team for his third consecutive year. Sophomores Davis, Reese, Heffner and Phillips will be the members of next year's team.

WRESTLING

Coach Parker's wrestlers had their best season since 1935 with a record of 6-2-1. Losing Parker, Mills and Wray at mid-season, the Wildcats were deprived of possible victories over The Citadel and N. C. State, but captain Tom Wright and Mike Bisard gained recognition in the conference tournament. Coach Parker was also honored this year by being selected coach for the United States wrestling team at the Pan American games.

As in other sports, certain elements comprise a team: coaches, players, and equipment. But we have mentioned other factors, such as scholarships, recruiting system, and student support, which decide a winning or losing season. Looking at this year's basketball record, 20-6, and a number two standing in the conference, it would seem that Coach Driesell had complete control of these factors. Not only did Davidson have these records, but they set new ones. Coach Driesell was coach of the year in the Southern Conference, Hetzel led the conference in scoring, drew an All-American honorable mention, and was All Southern Conference with captain Jarman. The team set new school records for the most points and field goals in a single game, and broke school records with the best field goal and free throw averages, best individual scoring, field goal and rebound averages, most points and rebounds for a season. Davidson can learn from and be proud of this team's desire to win, not only on the court, but in recruiting, scholarships and student support.

Erskine came fearfully and left hastily, as Hetzel sank 25 for a 91-51 rout . . . Losing at the half, 35-34, Duke feared an upset on their home court, and foul trouble helped them to a 76-68 win as Hetzel's 22 points led the 'Cats . . . At home for three games, Hetzel led the Cats to a 77-58 win against Wofford although Teague was hurt during the game, Holland's free throws saved a 64-62 win over V.M.I., and, as Teague defensed Furman's attack, captain Jarman, with 27 points, sent the Paladins home with a 66-63 loss . . . The Duke Blue Devils, number two in the nation, travelled to the Charlotte Coliseum and lost as Teague stole the ball from Heyman and put in two free throws in the final seconds giving the Cats a 72-69 victory . . . We then tried number one Cincinnati, as Jarman and Holland pushed a Davidson lead early in the half. Bearcat defense held Davidson's offense in the second half as they won 72-46 . . . New Hampshire came to Johnston Gym but ran as the Cats won, 115-54, for a school record . . . At the Coliseum, Princeton's Bradley pushed the Tigers to a second half lead to win, 79-70, as Hetzel, Teague, Jarman and Holland hit the double figures . . .

Fred Hetzel shoots over Princeton's All-American Bill Bradley, as the Cats drop a close one in the Coliseum.

Bill Jarman hooks against Duke's Heyman, as the Cats lost at Durham by a narrow margin. But the best was yet to be.

Don Davidson shoots over Cincinnati defender Tony Yates, as the Cats fall to the nation's number one team.

Terry Holland drives over Wake Forest's Dick Christry for two points in Davidson's 90-75 win over the Deacons in Charlotte.

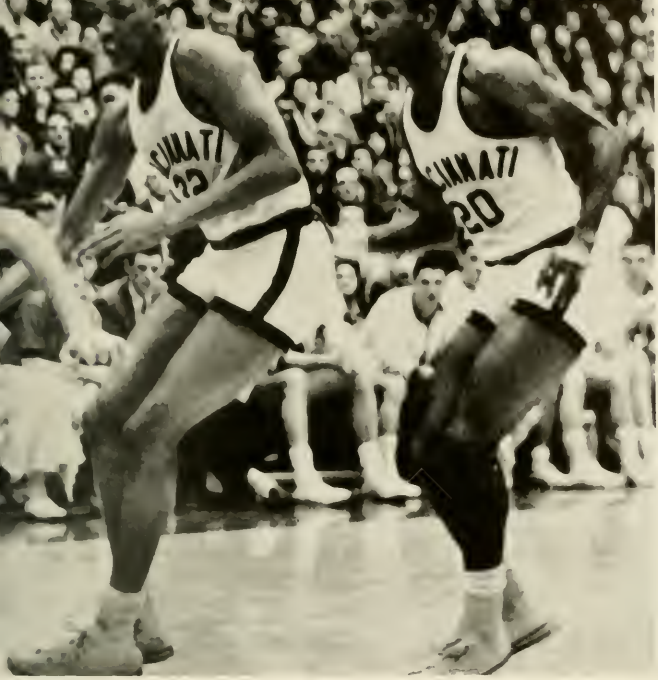
Don Davidson drives around Cincinnati's George Wilson and Tony Yates.

Jarman hooks in over Duke's Jay Buckley as the Cats score a 72-69 victory over the number two ranked Blue Devils in the Charlotte Coliseum.

. . . Behind at the half, 37-32, William and Mary took the lead, but free throws by Holland tied the game in the final seconds, and Davidson helped the Cats win in the overtime, 73-70 . . . Without the second half slump of the Princeton and William and Mary games, Hetzel hit for 29 points, beating East Carolina, 71-61 . . . But at Morgantown, West Virginia's Mountaineers and Thorn, with 28 points, won 89-73, as the Cat's shooting was off . . . And at Furman, Jarman's 27 points and Holland's 19 were not enough as the Paladins came from behind with five minutes left to win, 65-63 . . . Back at Davidson, against the University of Jacksonville, the Cats got mad, winning 112-78, as Hetzel got the most points, 46, and the most field goals, 17, for a single game to break these two school records . . . Still mad, Hetzel and Jarman fitted together 35 and 15 points respectively to beat Wofford in Spartanburg, 66-56 . . . With Hetzel's 28 points and Jarman's 23, and Holland and Beerman hitting the double figures, the Cats had a 50.8 average from the floor to beat Erskine, 85-48 . . . Away at Williamsburg, the Cats led the Indians at the half, but in the last few minutes lost the game, 70-63, . . . Richmond's Spiders were crushed by Jarman's 18 points and Hetzel's 31, as the Cats won again at home, 95-73 . . .



On to Richmond and the Conference tournament, seeded number two with an 18-6 record . . . Jarman's 18 rebounds and Hetzel's 28 points gunned Davidson past V.M.I. in their first tournament game, 108-71 . . . Ball handling was the secret of the Cats' second tournament win over V.P.I., 75-69, as Hetzel led with 27, assisted by Jarman's 18 and Teague's 15 . . . In the finals, the Cats were edged out in the last minute by West Virginia, 79-74, as Jarman had 23 and Hetzel 21 with both of them making the All Tournament First Team.

. . . In Charleston, the Cats had second half trouble again as they dropped a seven point lead, but Beerman's three foul shots put the game away, 50-49 . . . V.M.I. sought to upset the Cats by taking the lead early in the second half, but Hetzel's 23 points and Jarman's 17 gave Davidson a 64-57 win . . . Seeking revenge from their last outing, the Spiders, on their home court, were behind 27-24 at the half, but the Cats ran wild in the second half for a 72-57 win, as Jarman scored 15, Holland, 17, and Hetzel, 21 . . . Coming back very strong in the second half, Georgia Southern tied up the game, but Evans, in the last two seconds, hit two free throws and won the game, 59-57 . . . The Demon Deacons came to the Coliseum and were run out, 90-75, as Jarman hit 30 points, Hetzel 22. Wake Forest was out rebounded, and the Cats had a 64 per cent average from the floor . . . The Cats were still hot as Citadel invaded Davidson. Hetzel set the school record for the most rebounds in a single game as the Cats won their last game of the season, 99-71.

The play that told the tale.

SWIMMING

Plagued by sickness throughout the season, Coach Shue's swimmers finished with a 2-8-1 record. At the conference meet, however, sophomores Grey and Alexander placed fourth in the mile and backstroke, respectively. Using thirteen sophomores during the season, Coach Shue can expect experience and depth in his team next year.

RIFLE TEAM

Coached by Captain Charles Partridge, the rifle team closed its season with a record of 13-8. During the season, captain Blakeley tied his own school record of 292 out of a possible 300 of the Western Carolina Tournament. Next year returning members of the team, such as Rudolph and Forrester, will be aided by several top freshmen.

TRACK

The track team, coached by Heath Whittle, should improve upon last year's record of 4-3. The team has depth, more middle distance men, and two fine sprinters, captain Cordle and sophomore Turner. With Martin, Reese, Phillips and Heffner running the longer distances, Mills pole vaulting, and Wallace putting the shot and throwing the discus, Davidson could rank high in the conference this spring.

BASEBALL

Attempting to surpass last year's record of 8-16, Coach Stevens has worked hard with the 1963 team and looks forward to a much improved season. The Wildcats have an experienced infield with Tommy Tuttle, team captain and last year's leading hitter, Smyre, McNay, and Whitley. Of the outfielders, four of the five, Hamilton, Rust, Hutchens, and Cole, are returning lettermen. The pitching should be stronger than in previous years, for three sophomores, Teague, Johnson and Rudolph, will brace veterans Hamilton, Cole and Moore and could be the key to a successful season.

TENNIS

Returning for his second year as Davidson's tennis coach, Coach Fogleman hopes this team will be able to improve on last year's 7-9 record. The squad faces a heavier schedule and will meet tough opposition from teams like Michigan State, M.I.T., Rollins and Indiana. Under captain Bob Austell and four lettermen, the squad strives to be a conference threat.

PHI BETA KAPPA

Through academic perseverance and ability, these men have achieved recognition in the oldest Greek letter society. Founded on December 5, 1776, at the College of William and Mary, this fraternity, at first social in nature, evolved in the next half-century as an honorary society dedicated to the cultivation of the intellect and to the union of those engaged in intellectual pursuits.

Men recognized by Phi Beta Kappa have achieved a high scholastic average and possess qualities of outstanding character, integrity, and leadership. For it is not enough that a man gains knowledge, he must be able to apply this knowledge and give to others what he has learned himself.

Phi Beta Kappa has shown the importance of the liberal arts and sciences in an intellectual society. It must continue to challenge Davidson College to seek the highest standards of scholastic excellence and to perfect the study of the liberal arts.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa, a national leadership society, emphasizes three principles: to recognize men who have exhibited unusual ability and leadership in college activities, to bring together these leaders into a body which will help mold the sentiments of the institution, and to enclose members of the faculty and student body on the basis of mutual interest and understanding.

The Davidson Delta Circle of this society was formed in 1917, three years after the society was founded at Washington and Lee University. The Society selects men from the junior and senior classes who have exhibited character, leadership and service in campus life, scholarship, and consecration to democratic ideals.

The ideal of the development of the whole man which the members of this society attained must be sought by each student in his own way. Though these few men are recognized and rightfully so, each student must seek the ideal of the liberally educated man so that he may make his contribution and give his leadership in the molding of the sentiments, institutions, and traditions of Davidson College and become a worthy contributor of these ideals to society in later life.

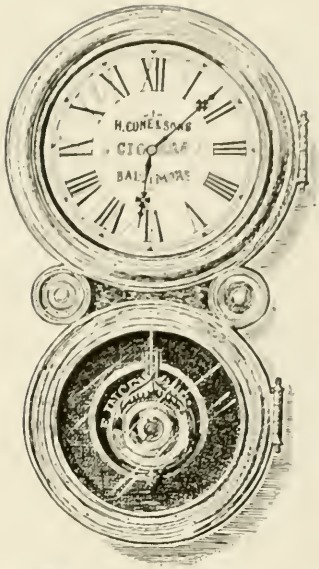
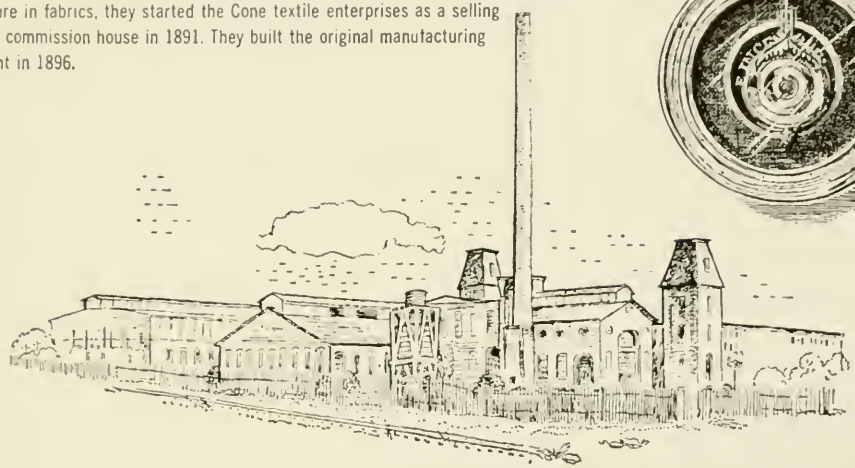
First the clock . . .
then the plant —



When a customer bought 100 cigars from the wholesale grocery firm of H. Cone & Sons in 1870, he received a handsome clock. Some of these clocks are still ticking away. In addition to selling cigars and groceries for their father, Moses and Ceasar Cone sold cotton plaids. Seeing a great future in fabrics, they started the Cone textile enterprises as a selling and commission house in 1891. They built the original manufacturing plant in 1896.



What of Cone Mills Today?

From these small beginnings has come one of the world's largest and most progressive textile firms. With 18 plants employing almost 13,000 men and women, Cone Mills today is the world's largest producer of corduroys, denims and flannels. Its modern printing and finishing operations are turning out a host of other fashion-right fabrics. Cone through its research and development activities is constantly seeking better ways to make better materials. Examples of Cone firsts in this country are the new, popular stretch denims and corduroys.

To maintain its high standards, our company needs young people with initiative and intelligence. Cone Mills offers opportunities in four areas . . . production, administration, sales and research. Would you be interested in joining such a progressive organization? Write Industrial Relations Department, Cone Mills Corporation, Greensboro, N. C.
